

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 11, 1972

Dear Alex:

I was very distressed to learn of your unexpected illness. Your wise professional advice is greatly valued and I hope you will be able to return soon to your key position at the State Department. You have my best wishes for a prompt and complete recovery.

Sincerely,

Honorable U. Alexis Johnson
Under Secretary of State
for Political Affairs
In care of Doctors Hospital
Washington, D. C.
